Section 3: Data Protection & PDPA Compliance

In accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA), SEAMUN I requires your consent to process the delegate's personal data for the following purposes:

1. Administrative Necessity: The collection of passport details, full names, and school affiliation for the issuance of formal visa invitation letters and conference registration.
2. Digital Workflow: The use of the InterMUN platform for 100% paperless note-passing and committee management.
3. Media & Photography: Consent for the delegate to be photographed or filmed during committee sessions and social events for use in the official SEAMUN I website, social media, and the post-summit "Impact Report."
4. Humanitarian Reporting: The disclosure of participation numbers (anonymised) to the Thai Red Cross Society for donation verification.

Consent Statement:

- ☐ I consent to the collection and use of my child's personal data for the academic and disclosed administrative purposes of SEAMUN I 2027.
- ☐ I consent to the use of my child's image/likeness in official conference media and photography.

*Note: Consent is required to attend, as these are mandatory operations of the conference. If you do not consent to both, your child's data and registration will be deleted ASAP.

Section 4: Medical & Safeguarding

I confirm that my child is medically fit to attend. I agree to disclose any specific medical conditions or dietary requirements via the official Medical and Dietary Form. In the event of a medical emergency, I authorise the SEAMUN Secretariat and Faculty Advisors to seek professional medical assistance at the nearest medical facility.

Section 5: Declaration

I have read and understood the nature of the summit and the data privacy policies disclosed above. I confirm that the information provided is accurate.
